

FLICKINGER WINES

Tasting Invitation: Domaine de Mourchon

Vineyards at Domaine de Mourchon, above the village of Séguret in Provence

Please joins us as we welcome Kate McKinlay, proprietor of Domaine de Mourchon, to Chicago to show us the very fine wines that are being produced at her family's estate. Kate will be here to talk to us about each bottling, and you will learn quickly that these are all superb wines that are drinking beautifully now - and will serve you very well indeed over the coming winter months (yes, even the Blanc and Rosé). Please don't miss this opportunity to taste some of the southern Rhone's finest bottlings, not to mention some of its best values!

Jeb Dunnuck: "The leading estate in Seguret, Domaine de Mourchon is located high up behind the village, at an altitude of 350 meters. It was created by the McKinlay family in 1998 and covers roughly 25 hectare of vines mostly planted to steep, terraces plots. While not reviewed here, they also release a terrific rose. These are superb wine across the board."

Robert Parker: "This is the best estate today in Seguret, and they continue to take the quality of their Côtes du Rhône to an exciting level...They are gorgeously made, pure, rich, beautifully textured, savory, and everything a wine in Provence should be..."
